Department Statement

It is the mission of political science and criminal justice to encourage a life-long passion for learning and a quest for knowledge by providing an environment that fosters academic excellence and unfettered inquiry. We encourage the development of ethics and values that recognize knowledge in all its diverse and creative forms. The primary goal of our department is to offer excellence in instruction while meeting the academic needs of the students. Our mission is to foster a creative learning environment and assist students through meaningful and relevant experiences to:

1. Promote respect for the diversity of all people as the core of social thought.
2. Guide students in developing analytical, communication, and information-gathering skills.
3. Encourage students to be tolerant, informed, and responsible citizens.
4. Offer opportunities for practical experience through internships, work studies, and memberships in honorary societies in political science and criminal justice.
5. Contribute to the cultural, political and justice development of Southern Utah and the surrounding region.

POLITICAL SCIENCE MISSION STATEMENT

Political science is devoted to the study of the theory and practice of government and politics. The political science program complements a student's liberal arts education with an emphasis on understanding the theoretical and practical aspects of political philosophy, public law, international relations, and American government and policy. Vocational alternatives for political science majors include teaching, public management, law, and foreign service.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the criminal justice program is to provide students with a comprehensive practical and professional knowledge of the Criminal Justice System, consisting of law enforcement, courts, and corrections. Students will develop a knowledge of the application of the law, social sciences, and natural sciences to the problems of crime and delinquency.

We will fulfill this mission statement by:

1. Providing a positive learning environment for students to develop the general working knowledge, ethical foundation, and technical skills to prepare them for professional careers in the Criminal Justice field.
2. Providing well prepared instruction from knowledgeable and qualified faculty.
3. Providing counsel and guidance regarding career opportunities, including exposure to professional agencies through an internship program.

Certificate of International Relations
ADMINISTRATION
G. Michael Stathis, Director The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice administers an interdisciplinary academic program in international relations which can serve as the basis for a specialized study of political science, or for a study of international relations by students with majors in other departments. The purpose of the certificate is to increase academic interest in the study of international affairs and to offer students valuable certification for future applications for graduate study or professional careers.
The program requires the successful completion of eight courses, six of which must be chosen from the political science curriculum. Certification is conferred upon graduation with a Bachelor of Arts degree.
Requirements
1. Students must submit a program of study with the department or the program director at least two semesters prior to graduation. 2. Students must complete eight courses from the list established for the certificate program. At least six of these courses must be political science courses including two core courses: POLS 2100 Introduction to International Relations, and POLS 4600 Theories of International Relations. 3. All requests for course substitutions must obtain prior approval from the program director. 4. Students must complete their courses with an overall 3.0 grade point average in the program.

5. Students must submit, to the program director, the Final Approval Form which lists courses taken for the certificate along with a current transcript the semester before they intend to graduate.
6. All courses must be completed with at least a "C".
7. The Certificate of International Relations is granted to students who meet Southern Utah University's requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Certificate of Public Administration

Advising and Admission

Rodney D. Decker, Director

The department is authorized to grant an Undergraduate Certificate in Public Administration (UCPA). Students should consult a faculty member in the Public Administration area for advisement.

The undergraduate certificate is an interdisciplinary approach in several related areas that is designed to assist students to be considered for entry-level administrative positions in government. Admission requirements include graduation from an accredited high school with at least a 2.89 GPA or completion of 20 credit hours of college or university work with a GPA of at least 2.5; regular enrollment as an undergraduate student; and a letter of intent from the prospective student.

When admitted, the student meets with the program director to develop a program outline. The program director advises students throughout their programs.

Requirements

The student must complete the program's course requirements and the bachelor's degree. Total program units required vary between 36 and 41 credits, depending on courses taken. The student is expected to maintain a GPA of at least 2.5 throughout the program. Many program courses also fill major and/or minor requirements. For course requirements, contact the program director, CN 225.

Required Courses:

American Government Systems
 POLS 1100 and POLS 3030

Economics: ECON 1010 and ECON 2100

Communications Competency: ENGL 2110

Constitutional Area: (One of the following)
 POLS 3120, POLS 3520.

Quantitative Skills: (Two of the following)

Tribal Government Administration: COMM 2150, HIST 3010, SOC 2630.

Students Interested in Attending Law School

Although Southern Utah University does not have a formal Pre-Law program, we have an excellent track record of placing students in some of the finest law schools in the United States. Assistant Professor Carl Franklin in GC 406L should be contacted for guidance during the student's undergraduate education.

Typically, students entering law school are Political Science majors. However, Criminal Justice majors also do well in law careers.

Notable law schools consider the student's overall GPA in addition to each student's LSAT (Law School Admissions Test) score when considering granting admission. Good grades throughout one's undergraduate career are essential.

For further information, please contact Lamar Jordan, Department Chair, (435) 865-8347, Carl Franklin, J.D., (435) 586-5410 or any of the department professors.

Internships

Internships are available for Political Science, Criminal Justice, and Paralegal students. Internships are done through various local, state, and federal government agencies as well as law firms. To apply for an internship, please contact Lamar Jordan, department chair (435) 865-8347.
