AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Seven (7) Areas of Specialization are offered to Elementary Majors that support this Major. Areas of Specialization currently offered include the following: (See the sections that describe the specifics of each Area of Specialization.)

1. Elementary Education Art Area of Specialization
2. English as a Second Language (ESL) Area of Specialization
3. Elementary Early Childhood Education Area of Specialization
4. English/Language Arts Elementary Education Area of Specialization
5. Elementary Education Music Area of Specialization
6. Elementary Education Science Education Area of Specialization
7. K-8 Mathematics Elementary Education Area of Specialization
8. Elementary Integrated Studies Area of Specialization

An approved area of specialization is required for elementary education majors, as listed above. To teach in grades 7 and 8, a secondary teaching minor is required. THE ELEMENTARY BLOCK PROGRAM

The Elementary Block program at Southern Utah University is a unique combination of methods classes and field-based experience. Teacher candidates enrolled in the Elementary Block will be required to commit to a full day of course work and practice.

Teacher candidates need to be aware of the commitment and preparation required to be successful as a public school teacher. Due to the limited enrollment in the Elementary Block, it is necessary for teacher candidates to make advance application for entry into this Block one semester prior to enrollment. Applications are available in the Teacher Education Office. (OM 211 - Sign-up dates are posted).

The Block consists of eighteen credit hours of methods instruction including a three credit hour segment of field based practicum. The methods courses include: methods of science, social studies, mathematics, language arts, and a management course.

The practicum portion of the Block includes a.m. and p.m. sessions at a local elementary school and a one-week field experience outside of the Cedar City area in a multi-cultural school setting. This one-week practicum experience is held in Clark County, Nevada; Salt Lake City, Utah, or other location as determined. Teacher candidates travel for these practicum experiences at their own expense.

These practicum's, the observations, and experiences become the focal point of the methods instruction in the methods portion of the Block. Clinical practice success has improved as a result of the Elementary Block program. Secondary and Special Education have also adopted the Block format as a result of this success.

Prior to enrollment in the Elementary Block, teacher candidates must be admitted to the Teacher Education program; all required elementary education classes must be completed, and 100% of major/minors/areas of concentrations must be completed.

SUU'S READING/LITERACY CENTER

The Reading/Literacy Center is sponsored by the Department of Teacher Education and Family Development as an integral practicum component of undergraduate and graduate courses in the assessment and remediation of reading/literacy difficulties. Community members make use of the Center's services, which provides diagnostic and ongoing assessment, technology assisted instruction, and strategic intervention for reading and literacy.

SPECIAL EDUCATION (MILD/MODERATE) DUAL-MAJOR

1. Statement of Philosophy

Individuals and society benefit when all of its members are educated to their fullest potential and are free to associate with each other. The notion of Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) is both a legal principle and an educational strategy that produces desirable social effects. The legal principle assures that a student with disabilities will receive an appropriate education and thus be included with peers without disabilities. As an educational strategy LRE enhances individual potential through appropriate education. Appropriate education thus will mitigate the effects of the disability by decreasing stigma, and thereby increasing associational rights, individual opportunity and potential.

Inasmuch as persons with disabilities live in the same world as persons without, judgment of educational needs must be a shared commitment of the educational community. This judgment and subsequent intervention requires a collaborative effort among educators and thus a different pre-service emphasis is warranted. Including students with disabilities in general education classrooms with the aid of education and management adaptations is a viable alternative to traditional "pullout" special education programs. Students with mild/moderate disabilities thus remain included with all students as much as possible and receive appropriate services through collaboration between special and general educators.

To facilitate inclusion with a collaboration emphasis, all students wishing to certify in Mild/Moderate Special Education at SUU must also be certified in elementary or secondary education.

Students planning to teach students with mild/moderate learning, behavioral, or intellectual disabilities must complete the major in mild/moderate special education in addition to either the Elementary Major or the Secondary Education Licensure.

2. Admission to the Mild/Moderate Special Education program

The SUU Mild/Moderate Special Education program is a very carefully sequenced program. The program is limited to 35 students per group who start each sequence of classes. New sequences of classes start each fall semester.

Admission to the SUU Mild/Moderate Special Education program is contingent on the following:

- a. Admission to the SUU Elementary Education Department.
- b. Completion of SPED 3030 with a grade of "B" or better.

Continued enrollment in the Mild/Moderate Special Education program is contingent on the maintenance of a "B" grade or better in all classes in the program. Application materials and further information regarding this program may be obtained by contacting the Teacher Education Department at 586-7802 (OM 211).

3. Licensure

To teach students with mild/moderate disabilities in the state of Utah, the Mild/Moderate Special Education Credential is required of students at SUU as well as a credential in either elementary or secondary education. The Mild/Moderate Special Education Credential permits the holder to teach students with mild to moderate learning, intellectual, and behavior disabilities.

4. To Apply for Clinical Practice
