DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the department of theatre arts and dance is to provide a nurturing and challenging educational environment which celebrates our history, propels us towards our future, and excels in practical application of theatre and dance techniques. Our goal is to provide a rich diversity of theatre and dance disciplines, techniques and technologies combined with an ever-changing array of production opportunities and personalized mentoring by our entire faculty and staff. Central to our focus as a department is superior teaching; our classroom encompasses the studio, the stage, and the technical laboratory.

DEPARTMENT GOAL STATEMENT

The goal of the Department of Theatre Arts and Dance is to:

- Foster academic excellence through development of programs that meet national standards.
- Promote superior teaching and personalized mentorship in the classroom, studio, stage, and technical laboratory by quality personnel with expertise in their areas of teaching.
- Enhance the cultural and aesthetic experience of our campus, community and region through quality productions, leadership, and service learning.
- Embrace a standard of artistic excellence which is enhanced by a strong professional link with the internationally recognized Utah Shakespearean Festival.
- Promote widespread visibility through our active participation with the ACDFA, KCACTF, USITT, URTA, ATHE, UTA and other professional/educational organizations.

DEPARTMENT EDUCATIONAL GOAL STATEMENT

- Provide students with broad practical skills in theatre/dance with adherence to national standards.
- Provide students with an historical and theoretical knowledge base necessary to sustain and forward theatre/dance as an art form.
- Prepare students for successful transfer to graduate or conservatory programs or to pursue professional careers in the performing arts, education, or allied fields. Those seeking to become educators will have a strong practical knowledge of theatre/dance in education.
- Involve students in the creation and presentation of public performances in theatre and dance.

THEATRE ARTS B.S./B.A. DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Intended Outcomes/Objectives for Bachelor of Arts & Bachelor of Science Degrees in Theatre Arts

A successful student will:

- Develop visual and aural perceptions for theatre performance.
- Understand basic production processes (i.e. performing, acting, stage direction, design, and the necessary technical operations related to production).
- Become familiar with the historical and cultural dimensions of theatre.
- Make informed assessments of quality in works of theatre and other related art forms.
- Explore post-baccalaureate opportunities with faculty guidance starting a minimum of one year before graduation.
- Have the opportunity to: attend professional conferences, festivals, work with artists in residence, and/or guest artists.
- Function in a variety of artistic roles through the presentation of public performances.

Implementation and Assessment for Bachelor of Arts & Bachelor of Science Degrees in Theatre Arts

- Students will complete a Capstone connected to a realized project. The Capstone consists of a written paper and an oral presentation to faculty of the concept, process and realization of the project, together with an assessment of the student's entire learning experience and its impact on the work as a whole. Students who show areas of deficiency may pass with qualifications. In these cases an individualized learning strategy will be developed to be completed before graduation.

- Juries will be held annually for all theatre majors to assess progress and determine each student’s level of skill and competency.
- Exit interviews will be held for all graduating seniors to determine program strengths and weaknesses.

Other

- Students will have the opportunity to have their skills assessed by professionals/guest artists working in the industry and/or graduate school programs.
- Students will engage in the enrichment of the university and local community through the presentation of artistic works in theatre.
- Every student will be assigned a faculty/staff mentor. The student/mentor relationship is critical to success and progress within the program.
- Every student is required to abide by the policies and procedures set up in the Departmental Student Handbook.
- Every student is required to pass all classes in their major with a grade of "C" (2.0) or higher.

Students who meet specific levels of competency may be given advanced placement. All students seeking advanced placement must audition, interview and/or present a portfolio for consideration. Additional testing may be required.

Core Requirements: All majors in theatre arts, completing the theatre arts degree, regardless of their area of focus, will complete the following theatre arts core:

THEATRE ARTS BFA DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Intended Outcomes/Objectives for Bachelor of Fine Arts

Students completing a Bachelor of Fine Arts in theatre will:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of theatre including script analysis, theatre history, and dramatic literature;
- Critically evaluate works of theatre by placing them in appropriate historical context and evaluating the aesthetic components;
- Demonstrate fundamental skills necessary in the areas of classical acting, musical theatre, or design/technology
- Demonstrate the professional attitudes and values of each discipline, which include respecting the collaborative process, meeting deadlines, punctuality, and professional responsibility;

- Communicate effectively with diverse audiences through on-going oral and written presentations;
- Undergo evaluation by external reviews in several of the following ways: professional auditions; graduate school admissions; Kennedy Center/American College Theatre Festival Adjudications; U/RTA Auditions, USITT portfolio reviews, internship placement
- Be prepared for advanced training or entrance into the profession.

Implementation & Assessment

- The program is committed to student success and therefore, will admit students who have the skill and, most importantly, the commitment to be successful in this professional degree program. Therefore, all student candidates for the proposed degree must interview and undergo either an audition or portfolio review depending on their desired area of emphasis. This review process is conducted by a faculty panel.
- The department requires every BFA theatre student to complete an annual interview and/or performance jury review with a panel made up of the theatre faculty.
- BFA students are expected to complete course-based performance assessment and must maintain an overall cumulative GPA of 3.0 in theatre based and general education coursework.
- BFA students will complete a significant internship and capstone project/presentation before graduation. The internship opportunity for the BFA students adds an important practical component to the degree. BFA capstone consists of a solo or ensemble performance ‘Senior Project’ accompanied by a written assessment paper of the project.
- Exit interviews will be held for all graduating seniors to determine program strengths and weaknesses.

Admission Requirements

The BFA admission process seeks evidence that each applicant possess the talent, artistic and collaborative sensibility, and most importantly, a strong sense of commitment to be successful in the program. Candidates for the BFA degree will interview with faculty and undergo either an audition or portfolio review, depending on their desired emphasis area. Students may audition for entry into the BFA program after completing their freshman year in Theatre Arts, or during the sophomore year, but not after beginning their junior year.

DANCE EDUCATION MAJOR

Intended Outcomes/Objectives specific to Dance Education

Beyond the outcomes for all BA/BS degrees in dance, a successful dance education student will:

- Be prepared to become educators with a strong practical knowledge of dance in education and its ability to educate the whole person.
- Have a working knowledge of dance as a world art form.
- Have a working knowledge of human movement and anatomy and how it relates to the teaching of dance technique.
- Demonstrate advanced proficiency in modern dance technique and intermediate level in ballet.
- Have a working knowledge of the state of Utah and national dance standards.
- Have a working knowledge of the skills of teaching with the ability to communicate the art of dance to students.

Students desiring to become candidates for licensure to teach in secondary schools must complete the following admission procedures:

- 1) Be admitted to the secondary education program (contact the Beverley Taylor Sorensen College of Education and Human Development for procedures).
- 2) Choose either a teaching minor or complete 10 credits of enrichment courses outside the SPED prefix.
- 3) Receive department admission approval for pre-licensure that it a separate procedure from the placement audition that is required for technique classes that are level III or above.

The department admission requirements for dance education pre-licensure students include the following:

- Completion of DANC 2080, DANC 2170, DANC 3180, DANC 3510 with a 3.0 prior to admission. (All courses are also requirements in the Dance Performance major).
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Performance in two department dance concerts (one must be main stage) prior to admission.
- Submission of a portfolio that includes samples of student choreography, composition studies, performance, and writing skills.
- Interview with the dance faculty. The interview will be scheduled for 30 minutes during jury week. Students will be asked a variety of questions relating to dance and dance education. Students will be assessed on their ability to orally communicate, critically think and organize thoughts, share knowledge and understanding of dance education, and respond interpersonally.

Admission is on a provisional basis until students demonstrate mastery of Dance Education requirements, competencies and skills. Upon completion of all requirements of both the Dance Education and Teacher Education Program requirements and verification of competencies and skills, students become candidates for teacher licensure.
