Doceri is a scalable suite of products that allows a teacher or presenter to control a computer's desktop, to control audiovisual technology, and to annotate any assignment. Engage students with a hand-written lesson, start with an image or annotate over a worksheet or PowerPoint/Keynote presentation. Save, edit, reuse. Turn your Doceri lessons into flip classroom video screencasts, share a multi-page PDF or email a screen shot to send the whiteboard home with your students. Get out from behind the computer podium. Access your pedagogical materials remotely while you move among your students to wirelessly present your lessons
