

We will remember

GRADUATES STUDENTS

Julia Elene Smith Jenson, '22, passed away June 9, 2005, in Washington, UT. She was born on October 15, 1904, in Salt Lake City. She spent her childhood years in Glendale, UT, and then moved with her identical twin sister, Ellen, to Cedar City to attend college. There she met and married Heber C. Kimball Jenson on November 16, 1923. She was the Cedar City Librarian for many years, and a patriotic citizen who never failed to vote. She happily served her fellow man.

Kathleen Joseph Clark, '36, passed away November 5, 2004, in South Jordan, UT. She was born July 9, 1917, in Parowan, UT. Kathleen married Saunders (Bid) Clark in 1936. Kathleen and Saunders were long time Parowan residents and loved and cherished the many close friends they had there. Kathleen graduated from Parowan High School and attended Branch Agriculture College. She was best known for her sweet disposition and never ending patience.

Roma Bentley Dalley, '39, passed away on May 15, 2005, at the Beaver Valley Care Center. She was born on October 15, 1919, in Parowan, UT. She married Max S. Dalley on July 13, 1942, in Lawton, Oklahoma. Roma attended Parowan High School and after graduating she attend the Branch Agriculture College for two years. She then went to Brigham Young University for two more years where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. She was a talented artist, seamstress, and cook, and shared these talents with many family and friends.

J. Carlos 'Abe' Haycock, '51, passed away April 8, 2005. He was born August 8, 1925, in Circleville UT. He married Shirley Fiack Haycock on September 16, 1951, in Cedar City UT. Abe graduated from Piute High School, and attended BAC where he earned an associate's degree. Abe worked for the Highway Patrol for more than 25 years and enjoyed the people he worked with. He also enjoyed driving 18-wheelers and running heavy equipment.

Karl Byron Harrison, '69, passed away May 16, 2005, in Richfield, UT. He was born September 4, 1935, in Payson, UT. He married Mary Lee Isbell, August 17, 1962, in the Manti LDS Temple. Byron graduated from SUU, New York School and Chicago School of interior design. He took advanced training in art and design at BYU where he was a lecturer. Byron was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was devoted to making life better for others and providing for his family.

Stephen Milo Reeve, '69, passed away May 28, 2005, due to a horse accident. He was born in Hurricane, UT, on September 19, 1942. He married Katherine Kay Alger on May 4, 1967, in the St. George LDS Temple. He graduated from Southern Utah State College in 1969 and went on to BYU and earned a master's in Physical Education. Stephen's love was being on the ranch on the Arizona Strip.

Joseph Phil Thornton, passed away March 18, 2005, in Washington UT. He was born July 17, 1918, in St. George, UT. When Phil was two years old he contracted spinal meningitis that resulted in his being hearing impaired. At age eight, Phil began attending the Ogden School of the Deaf, where he met and married his sweetheart Clara Caroline Foote. He went on to graduate with high honors in mathematics from SUU. Those who knew Phil described him as an amazing man with many talents.

Louise Manning Bennett, passed away March 24, 2005, in Richfield, UT. She was born August 31, 1920, in Ogden UT. She married LaMont L. Bennett on September 4, 1946, in the Salt Lake City LDS Temple. She grew up in Cedar City where she participated in operas, the orchestra, and many other activities. She attended BAC where she was president of the Ai Lambda Tau Sorority. Louise also attended Brigham Young University and graduated in 1942.

Farris Merle Evans, passed away April 27, 2005, at Kolob Regional Care Center. He was born July 13, 1917, in Parowan, UT. He graduated from Parowan High School and attended BAC for one year. Farris married his sweetheart Dixie Wood in Parowan on April 13, 1940. She preceded him in death and he married Marge (Bauer) Evans on March 7, 1992. Ferris served in the US Army as a corporal from 1945-1946 and was honorably discharged.

Norma Smith Burton, passed away May 15, 2005, after years of serious heart problems. She was born May 3, 1921, in Parowan, UT. She was raised in Parowan and loved to help her dad with the chores. After graduating from Parowan high school she attended BAC. While attending college she worked at the public library in Cedar and obtained employment with the United States Post Office. Norma married Charles Franklin Burton, July 11, 1946. Norma loved her grandchildren and took great delight in their activities. Many times she could be seen shuttling them around town, and they loved sleeping at Grandma's house, even in their teenage years.

Clifford Delaine 'Dee' Evans, passed away May 17, 2005, at the Kolob Regional Care Center from Alzheimers Disease. He was born March 17, 1919, in Parowan, UT. Dee lived all of his life in Parowan, where he was educated in the Parowan schools and spent one year at BAC, where he met his sweetheart Jean Hamblin. They were married in August of 1939 and had more than 65 years together. Dee was a very ambitious person who loved to work. He especially loved to farm and work with sheep.

James LaNoir Jones, passed away June 11, 2005, in Cedar City. He was born June 27, 1914, in Cedar City. He married Bertha Lessing on June 3, 1935, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. LaNoir was educated in the Cedar City school system and attended BAC where he was Class President and has been President of the 50-Year club. In 1964, he started the Top Spot Drive-In which was and is still a very successful local business in Cedar City. LaNoir was a very hard worker and loved deer hunting with his son.

LaMar Gurr Jensen, passed away June 12, 2005, in Parowan, UT. He was born October 13, 1919, in Parowan. LaMar attended Parowan High School and BAC. LaMar married Roma Lyman on June 30, 1947. He had a small farm and raised Charolais cows and calves. He had a good work ethic and always wanted to keep busy.

James Burns, passed away July 3, 2005. He was born April 10, 1953, in Nephi, UT. He attended South Elementary, Cedar High School, Southern Utah State College, and received his Juris Doctorate from the Old College School of Law, Reno, Nevada, in 1985. Jim was happiest when he was palling around with his children while offering praise and wisdom. He enjoyed a hot cup of coffee on a cold mountain morning and riding the trails of Cottonwood on a sure-footed horse.

If you are aware of an SUU alum, or a former staff or faculty member who has passed away, please contact SUU's Office of Alumni Relations. Let us know by mail at 351 W. Center Street, Cedar City, Utah, 82720. Or call 888-586-1997, or e-mail copley@suu.edu or jensen@suu.edu.