

50-YEAR CLUB TO CELEBRATE MEMORIES OF THE CLASS OF 1957

President of the SUU 50-Year Club Marion Sevy Turner ('53) and her committee of Roy "Pug" Urie ('38), Laurel Lunt Hulet ('54), Steve Lunt, Jaine Seegmiller Adams Crane ('53), and Doug Knell ('53) invite SUU Alumni to a reunion luncheon on Saturday, September 22, 2007.

"We look forward to seeing each of you," Turner said. "This gathering is a wonderful opportunity to renew old friendships, make new ones, and enjoy reminiscing about days gone by, as well as to recognize and honor the new members of the 50-Year Club."

The reunion luncheon will be held in the Hunter Conference Center and begin with a reception at 11:30 AM in the Whiting Room, followed by a luncheon in the Great Hall.

The Class of 1957 will be inducted into the 50-Year Club. Nolan Ashman and Kim Jones (see below) will be the spokesmen from the Class of 1957.

Both Kim and Nolan have fond memories of SUU.

"We're sure they will bring back your warm-hearted memories as they talk about classmates, professors and life long lessons learned at SUU," Turner said. "No doubt there will be a few laughs!"

Kim Jones ('57) is from Monroe, Utah. He fondly remembers being contacted by A. W. Stephensen and Bruce Osborne. "They found me out on the farm on an evening in the early summer of 1955." Thus began an association with the institution that has involved six decades.

After four years at Utah State University, Kim returned to College of Southern Utah as a mathematics instructor. Other than for interruptions to do graduate work at the University of Illinois and the University of Utah, he taught at SUU for 40 years.

Kim is married to the former Louise Hill ('72), also of Monroe. They have three children: Kevin, Kathy and K.C., all graduates of SUU.

Kim and Louise rarely miss an SUU athletic event. He is active in the Emeriti Association and serves this year as president.

Nolan Ashman ('57) is married to the former Yvonne Bauer. Both of them were raised in Cedar City. They have four daughters – Alicia Gubler, Michele Bell, Nicole Miller, and Erika Brendle – as well as 17 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Nolan graduated from Cedar High School in 1952.

He attended Branch Agricultural College in 1952-53 before being drafted into the Army. He returned to Cedar City to find that BAC's name had been changed to College of Southern Utah. He graduated with an associate's degree in 1957.

He earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Utah and a master's degree from Utah State before completing a doctorate in clinical psychology at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas in 1985.

Nolan spent his career as a counselor and therapist while teaching psychology at Dixie State College in St. George.

He served as a sergeant and reserve deputy for the Mohave County Sheriff's Office in Kingman, Arizona, from 1979 to 1986. He has also been a consulting psychologist for several law enforcement agencies.

His interests include classical music and opera, reading, writing and golf.

Alumni sing 'The Grand Old BAC' at the 50-Year Club Banquet.
