Twelfth Night

Shakespeare's delightful and imaginative play, with its cast of gypsies, pirates, and confused lovers provided just the right mood for the summer season's beginning.

Coriolanus

The Adams Shakespearean Theatre stage was full with warfare and political intrigue that remains amazingly current and uncomfortably familiar even in today's world.

King Lear

Shakespeare's wonderful masterpiece reminds us of the importance of family, love, loyalty, honesty and basic integrity.

The Matchmaker

The play provided the basis for the hit Broadway musical and movie Hello, Dolly!, and features the nearly diabolically clever matchmaker, Dolly Levi, who decides the perfect match for the financially secure Horace Vandergelder is herself!

Candida

A poignant examination of husband/wife relationships, this play teaches us much about our own passions and human needs. Experience the emerging love triangle involving a successful and handsome minister, his lovely wife, and a young poet.

Lend Me a Tenor: The Musical

The World Premiere, based on the hit Broadway comedy by Ken Ludwig, the show takes on a whole new personality with amazingly clever music and lyrics by Festival veterans Brad Carroll and Peter Sham.
