

Greetings to all SUU Alumni and Friends

Pennie Copley, Assistant Director, Alumni Relations

“On the Road Again” may well be the theme song describing the activities in the Alumni Relations Department here at SUU. And we couldn’t be happier doing it! As we meet with SUU Alumni across the country, we are thrilled to reacquaint and reminisce about today’s successes and yesterday’s memories of wonderful times on the campus of SUU (SUSC, CSU, BAC, or BNS for some of you). After all, our Alumni are our legacy and we are honored to meet with you, wherever you are to see first hand and hear of your successes and accomplishments.

What is the value of your degree and a first rate education from SUU? The answer to that is ever present in the hearts and minds of our administration, faculty and staff as they go about their work each day. On the heels of a national recognition for excellence and value in education by the National Consumer Digest, another honor was given by the Princeton Review crediting SUU for outstanding achievements and an unwavering aim for perfection campus wide. Dean O’Driscoll, SUU’s Director of Marketing and Public Relations said of receiving these national recognitions “This is something we have known for years; we’re just glad some agencies whose opinions are highly regarded are telling the world for us. From the beginning, high achievements have been a longstanding goal at SUU.”

This is why we once again invite you to participate in our Alumni Mentoring Program. Sharing your expertise and wisdom with students and recent graduates is a rewarding way to give a little back. Mentors from various career tracks and disciplines are still needed in order to launch the program as scheduled this spring. Your experiences are indeed a valuable asset to you and if shared would benefit those following in your footsteps. Please take a moment to log on to suu.edu/alumni, click the mentoring program and begin by following the prompts. It only takes about 10 minutes to get signed up and a few moments every now and then to correspond and mentor by e-mail, phone, or whatever method you chose. Go ahead, give it a try!

Many of you have been to our website suu.edu/alumni to update your contact information or just to see what’s happening on campus or in a nearby chapter. If you haven’t, please visit us there or you can reach us by calling our office direct at 1-888-586-1997.

We hope this message finds you well and happy and as always, we look forward to seeing you while “on the road again” very soon.

Warmest Regards,

*Pennie Copley
Assistant Director, SUU Alumni Relations*

*Marlo Jensen,
Director, Alumni Relations*

*Valynne Nicholes, Associate
Director, Alumni Relations*