

We will remember

GRADUATES STUDENTS

James Hoyle Jr., '40, passed away July 8, 2004. He was born on May 22, 1920 in Perth, Australia. He married June Wana Hansen September 22, 1942. James was on the Institutional Council for Southern Utah State College. James was very involved in the community and loved attending the University sporting events.

Norman Wayne Romberger, '48, passed away July 6, 2004. He was born March 8, 1927 in Cedar City, UT. He married Florence Mortensen December 9, 1948. He graduated from BAC in 1948. Norman loved horses, painting, camping, and family activities. He was a master gardener which was enjoyed by family and neighbors. He was a great storyteller and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Afton Cram, '66, passed away July 8, 2004. She was born July 18, 1915 in Kanab, UT. She married Locklon B. Cram on May 14, 1933. Afton received her LPN degree from CSU in 1966. She enjoyed crocheting, especially Afghans and was a member of the bridge club. She also enjoyed gardening and was very proud of her yard.

Roger Fin Williams, M.D., '71, passed away July 19, 2004. He was born on December 12, 1946 in Denver, CO. He married Karla Church on June 8, 1971. Roger attended Southern Utah State College and obtained a bachelors degree in Zoology with a minor in chemistry. He attended Medical School at the U of U and completed a four year residency in Pathology.

Tracy Layron Williams, '73, passed away September 6, 2004. He was born April 19, 1949. Tracy attended Southern Utah State College, graduating with a degree in zoology and a minor in chemistry. He then attended the University of Washington School of Dentistry in Seattle, Washington, where he earned the degree of doctor of dental surgery. He practiced dentistry in Cedar City, Utah from 1977 to 2004. He loved photography, amateur radio, golf, jewelry-making, hunting for arrowheads, fishing, deer hunting and computers.

Barbara Hall Blazzard, passed away August 25, 2004. She was born June 17, 1927 in Hurricane Utah. Barbara married James Thomas Blazzard and had seven children. She attended Branch Agricultural College where she was the flag bearer for the pep squad and secretary to college professors. She served two LDS missions and held many church callings. Barbara loved reading, sewing, and serving others.

Ruth M. Seegmiller passed away January 4, 2005. She was born January 30, 1922 in Enoch UT. Ruth married her high school sweetheart, Grant C. Seegmiller on October 11, 1941. Ruth attended one year at BAC. She worked in the banking industry of many years and retired from the Cedar City branch of First Interstate Bank.

FACULTY STAFF

Craig Somerville Morrison, passed away August 22, 2004. He was born September 14, 1946 in Montreal Quebec Canada. He was educated at University of New Brunswick, Springfield College and Brigham Young University. He taught at the University of Queensland in Australia. In 1990, Craig accepted a teaching position at SUU in the Physical Education Department where he worked for 14 years, the last three serving as department chairman. He built and played guitars, and pencil sketched in his free time.

Carol May Young Lyman, '02, passed away July 9, 2004. She was born in SLC in May 4, 1949. Carol married LeGrand R Lyman in May 10, 1968, and they had 6 children together. Carol always enjoyed working with children. She taught preschool at SUU Headstart.

If you are aware of an SUU alum, or a former staff or faculty member who has passed away, please contact SUU's Office of Alumni Relations. Let us know by mail at 351 W. Center Street, Cedar City, Utah, 82720. Or call 888-586-1997, or e-mail copley@suu.edu or jensen@suu.edu