

ASSESSMENT REPORT, DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE, 2005-2006

Mission statement/goals	Intended outcomes	Assessment methods	Data collected	Use of results
1. To develop within each cadet/student a grater understanding of the Military profession. Prospective officers will study training management, Military writing, decision making, administration, logistics, tactics, and leadership ethics 2. Prepare our cadets/students for successful careers after graduation 3. Prepare each cadet/student to develop the confidence and leadership traits necessary to be a leader in the 21st century. 4. Provide hands on experience in leadership and intellectual thinking.	Graduates will: Possess an understanding of the military management style Be able to take complex situations and use the military decision making process to overcome the situation and achieve the goals and objectives of the situation Be able to make ethical and legal decisions in tough and demanding leadership positions Be able to communicate in both oral and written form and have a firm understanding of proper writing style.	1. Assessment measures include exams, homework and quizzes; course projects; Practical exercises. Semester counseling, (both beginning and end of semester) 2. Attendance at WF (LDAC) Evaluations from WF. National OML that ranks all cadets nation wide. 3. Cadets/students will access into their first, second or third choice of military branch	1a. Courses accomplished their objectives. Grades were reviewed and found the cadets/students had a high median GPA 1b. 2 projects were carried out by the cadets/students successfully. 1c. All practical exercises were evaluated with written feed back by senior cadets and cadre. 1d. Cadet counseling was positive and a building block for improvement and fostered sustainment for their strengths 2a. 100% attendance and pass rate at WF with all students receiving E,S, on all evaluated tasks out of a E,S,N scale. 2b. SUU cadets were all ranked in the top 20 percent of cadets nation wide. This was out of a pool of 4631 cadets. 3a. 100% of cadets/students received their first branch choice	1a. Courses have been assessed by faculty. Cadet Command has also updated the curriculum and current situations dictate. 1b. Faculty will continue to have the cadets/students be involved in the cadet planning, training cycle and other military courses. 2. Objectives met. Continue with what the faculty is doing to prepare cadets/students for WF 3a. Objectives met no action planed