

ASSESSMENT PLAN, DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE, 2006-2007

Mission statement/goals	Intended outcomes	Assessment methods	Data collected	Use of results
1. To develop within each cadet/student a greater understanding of the Military profession. Prospective officers will study training management, Military writing, decision making, administration, logistics, tactics, and leadership ethics 2. Prepare our cadets/students for successful careers after graduation 3. Develop in each cadet/student the confidence and leadership traits necessary to be an effective leader in the 21st century. 4. Provide hands on experience in leadership and intellectual thinking.	Graduates will: Possess an understanding of the military management style Be able to take complex situations and use the military decision making process to overcome the situation and achieve the goals and objectives of the situation Be able to make ethical and legal decisions in tough and demanding leadership positions Be able to communicate in both oral and written form and have a firm understanding of proper writing style.	1. Assessment measures include exams, homework and quizzes; course projects; Practical exercises. Semester counseling, (both beginning and end of semester) 2. Attendance at WF (LDAC) Evaluations from WF. National OML that ranks all cadets nation wide. 3. Cadets/students will access into their first, second or third choice of military branch		