III. POLICY:

A. Definitions

1. Faculty: SUU Policy 6.0, Definition of Faculty, defines the term "faculty".
2. Academic Units: An academic unit is an organizational unit of more than one person whose operating head reports to the Provost or designee. To be designated an academic unit, the group must: (a) have a separate, identifiable budget and (b) be designated an academic unit by the President, the Board of Trustees and the Board of Regents.
3. Academic Department: An academic department is a subcomponent of an academic unit with an identifiable teaching and scholarly/creative activity. To be designated an academic department, the group of faculty must: (a) offer or administer a degree, certificate, or some other official credential of the University; (b) have an identifiable curriculum and formal description in current University catalogs or other publications; (c) have a separate identifiable budget; (d) be designated an academic department by decision of the President, the Board of Trustees and the Board of Regents.

B. Academic Officers

1. Policies of the Utah State Board of Regents provide that Presidents appoint officers, faculty and staff of the University. In academics, these officers are administratively responsible and report to those designated in a line of authority for the functions and duties of their offices. They serve at the discretion of the President.
2. Academic Officers under this policy are: The University Provost, Associate Provost, Deans of Academic Colleges/Schools, Associate Deans, Department Chairs, and Associate Department Chairs.
3. Academic officers are appointed consistent with procedures of appointing faculty members in SUU Policy, 6.38. Further, SUU Policy 6.1 describes tenure and academic rank that may be associated with the positions.

C. The University Provost (hereafter Provost)

The Provost is the chief academic officer of the University. The Provost is responsible to represent the University in such a manner as to ensure the orderly and efficient conduct of University academic affairs, when the President delegates appropriate authority.

1. Procedure of Appointing the Provost.
  - a. The search for a Provost will originate with the President who will arrange for faculty input. A search committee will be established with representation from academic units and other areas of the University.
  - b. The search committee will evaluate and screen the candidates, and submit an unranked list of acceptable candidates to the President.
