MUSICAL PORTRAITS
SUU MUSIC FACULTY RECITAL

(Southern Utah University, Cedar City, UT) The SUU Department of Music will present a faculty recital titled "Musical Portraits" on Monday, October 13th at 7:30 pm in Thorley Recital Hall. This recital will be an evening of music inspired by the National Geographic Greatest Portraits exhibit on display in the Braithwaite Fine Arts Gallery.

As part of the 10th Anniversary of the College of Performing and Visual Arts the "Musical Portraits" recital will feature the diverse talents of SUU's music faculty playing a wide diversity of music from around the world, including Russia, Syria, Lithuania, Bohemia and the United States.

The American composers even include the music department's own composer and chair, Keith Bradshaw. There will be such a variety to appeal to every musical taste - from a Hebrew melody to Broadway tunes, from piano etudes to English horn folksongs, and from contrabass to a percussion, violin and piano trio.

The evening will prove to be a delightful potpourri of some very original musical offerings. Admission is free and all are welcome to attend.
