MINUTES

Present: Rodney D. Decker, Dianne Werber, Elise Leahy for Kirk Fitzpatrick, Shauna Mendini, Lee Montgomery, Jeff Barnes, Lindsey Anderson, Karl Stevens, Dave Ward, Ryan Robertson for Micah Keith, Vic Brown, and Terry Alger.

School of Business Jeff Barnes presented foreign language courses may be used as an elective in Management and Marketing, implemented in Fall 2006; seconded by Elise Leahy. Discussion followed; foreign language electives will include upper division which will accommodate students who come into the programs knowing a foreign language. A vote was taken and it passed unanimously.

College of Humanities and Social Sciences Rod Decker presented for Elise Leahy consent items for Communication Minor change. COMM 1010 must be taken as a GE humanities requirement and a minimum of 18 additional communication credits must be taken to satisfy the minor.

Presented for deletion-- POLS 3660 – Politics of Russia and Central Asia; POLS 3830 – Politics, Public Opinion, Socialization and Media; and POLS 4220 – History of Political Thought II. Presented for title and prefix change—POLS 4210 – History of Political Thought I to POLS 4210 – History of Political Thought; and POLS 4990 – Research Seminar in Political Science to POLS 4990 – Seminar in Political Science; seconded by Terry Alger. Discussion followed and Shauna felt that when a course is presented for consent change only, justification can be by memo rather than on the proposal form. If substantive change, then a syllabus is needed for the Registrar's Office. A vote was taken and it passed unanimously.

Shauna presented actions taken in the GE Subcommittee for courses in English. Courses presented were, ENGL 2240 – Introduction to Poetry, to continue as a GE within the Humanities Knowledge area; ENGL 2200 – Introduction to Literature and Culture, to continue in GE within the Humanities Knowledge area; to include the following instructions for GE: "Courses with the same academic prefix cannot be counted in more than one knowledge area," effective in SUU Catalog 06-07 under GE area; Lindsey Anderson raised some concern over this item stating it could cause some problems with the degree audit and if it would create more credits in the GE area. ENGL 2020 – Introduction to Creative Writing, to be moved to the Fine Arts Knowledge area in the new GE offerings, " effective in SUU Catalog 06-07; ENGL 2130 – Introduction to Imaginative Literature, to continue in GE within the Humanities Knowledge area; seconded by Terry Alger. Discussion followed concerning accepting these courses as consent items and sending them to the Provost for final approval. The vote to accept was unanimous.

Other Lindsey Anderson asked where changes in the UNIV 1000 should come from. The UCC felt changes should come from First Year Experience, Brian Heuett and Patrick Clark. Then they should be submitted to the UCC for approval.
