

Camp Code of Conduct

Parents and Students, please read through this informational letter, which contains a set of rules for all students to follow throughout their stay at the Southern Utah University College of Science and Engineering TECS Summer Camp. Students are expected to adhere to these rules for the summer camp:

Campers will:

- Participate fully in the program including all activities, classes, and workshops
- Follow all from instructors and camp counselors.
- Follow safety procedures and instructions for use of equipment during activities.
- Be respectful to camp staff and other campers.
- Be responsible for his/her own behavior and encourage peers to make appropriate choices.
- Adhere to the camp schedule including wake-up time and curfew time.

Campers will not:

- Leave the camp premises without staff/faculty supervision.
- Use or display profanity, vulgar language, or obscene gestures, words, or graphics.
- Inappropriately touch themselves, other campers, or other staff.
- Use inappropriate language including derogatory statements.
- Steal or damage facilities or property of SUU, staff, or students.

Failure to comply with these rules may result in expulsion from the camping program and/or you will be billed for damages. Violations in local, state or federal laws will be reported to the authorities. I also understand there are no refunds due to expulsion from the camp.

Any further questions or concerns should be directed to: laureldodgion@suu.edu or (435) 865-8090.

We, the undersigned student and parent/legal guardian have read the basic rules for participation at the SUU TECS Summer Camp program outlined below and agree to abide by the rules. We also understand that no refunds will be given due to missing/leaving the camp due to misconduct, sickness, or voluntary departure.
