Important Reminders

- ESA's are not Service Animals and are only permitted in University Housing.
- Your ESA is only to be in your care and handled by you as the caretaker.
- Any violation of the Care and Action Plan will result in the immediate removal of the ESA from University Housing.
- An ESA may be denied if it poses a direct threat to the health and safety of the University Housing Community.
- ESA owners are financially responsible for any damages caused by their animal to University facilities or to persons.

I understand the ESA policy as explained to me, and have retained a copy of this policy. I will follow the Care and Action Plan. Any questions or concerns I will discuss with my case manager in the Disability Resource Center and University Housing Officials.
