

Mocktails

A Mocktail is a non-intoxicating beverage. The word 'Mocktail' is a derivative of two words – 'mock' meaning a copy or imitation of something and the word 'cocktail' meaning a mixed drink. A non-alcoholic cocktail drink is also referred to as a Virgin Cocktail. A mocktail does not contain any intoxicating alcohol and is made of one or more kinds of beverages such as fruit juices or mixers. It is usually shaken or stirred before serving.
