The professional thesis is a clear demonstration of communication research in a specific industry product. The project includes all essential background and evidence of working and conversational knowledge of all aspects of topic. Justification of reasons internship was necessary or beneficial. The duration should be sufficient to pass the internship and demonstrate the candidate’s potential in the professional field. The presentation should be sponsored by an organization where they could imagine themselves working. The internship should be sponsored by a legitimate on-site professional organization where they could imagine themselves working. and the student should able to evaluate the quality of relevant work created during the experience. The major area should be at least 1 semester.

The professional project is a clear demonstration of communication research in a specific industry product. The project includes all essential background and evidence of working and conversational knowledge of all aspects of topic. Justification of reasons internship was necessary or beneficial. The duration should be sufficient to pass the internship and demonstrate the candidate’s potential in the professional field. The presentation should be sponsored by an organization where they could imagine themselves working. The internship should be sponsored by a legitimate on-site professional organization where they could imagine themselves working. and the student should able to evaluate the quality of relevant work created during the experience. The major area should be at least 1 semester.

The advanced industry internship is designed to help students gain legitimate industry work similar consistent with professionalization career goals. Students should work with a company or organization where they could imagine themselves working. The internship should be sponsored by a legitimate on-site professional organization where they could imagine themselves working. and the student should able to evaluate the quality of relevant work created during the experience. The major area should be at least 1 semester.

LITERATURE REVIEW 8-10 PAGES

- Methodology
- Literature Synthesis
- Major Findings
- Summary
- Conclusion
- References

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION 2-3 PAGES

- Results Summary
- Discussion
- Conclusion
- References

APPENDICES

- All required library forms must be submitted with the thesis forms at the bottom of this policy list.
- All required library forms must be submitted with the thesis forms at the bottom of this policy list.

FINAL PRESENTATION

- The internship will be presented in a Department Capstone Symposium during the academic year following the internship semester (during the University Heat between 11:30-12:30 Mountain Time. The presentation should be submitted to the program committee, but other arrangements to present it should be agreed upon with the advisor. The internship will be presented in a Department Capstone Symposium during the academic year following the internship semester (during the University Heat between 11:30-12:30 Mountain Time. The presentation should be submitted to the program committee, but other arrangements to present it should be agreed upon with the advisor.

- The internship will be presented in a Department Capstone Symposium during the academic year following the internship semester (during the University Heat between 11:30-12:30 Mountain Time. The presentation should be submitted to the program committee, but other arrangements to present it should be agreed upon with the advisor.

- The internship will be presented in a Department Capstone Symposium during the academic year following the internship semester (during the University Heat between 11:30-12:30 Mountain Time. The presentation should be submitted to the program committee, but other arrangements to present it should be agreed upon with the advisor.