

NATIVE AMERICAN HISTORY WEEK, OCT./NOV. 2016

(unless noted otherwise, all events are in CN 227; events shaded in gray are required events;
italicized events are extra credit / make up events, associated with Native American Heritage Month)

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
OCT 24 4:30 PM, CN 227 Course Mechanics and Requirements Film: "In the white man's image" (58") "This documentary tells the story of the attempt to assimilate American Indians into white culture by educating them at special schools such as the Carlisle School for Indians. Founded by Richard Henry Pratt, this school and others like it attempted to wipe out all remnants of Indian culture, and, as a result, created a generation of Indians confused about their identities."	OCT 25 4:30 PM, CN 227 (50") Tina Calamity, Northern Paiute tribe, SUU Academic Advisor, and Xavier Garcia, Southern Paiute Education Director: "Native American Students: Struggles and Triumphs"	OCT 26 4:30 PM, CN 227 (50") Eleanor Tom, Cedar Band of Paiutes elder: "Teaching the Paiute language and culture to Paiute youth." In addition to talking about her work with preserving and passing down the Paiute language, Ms. Tom will demonstrate how to make a traditional cradleboard.	OCT 27 11:30 am, Great Hall, HCC (60") Convocation with Dr. Laura Tohe, poet laureate for the Navajo Nation: "No Parole Today: An American Indian Boarding School Experience" 4:30 PM, CN 227 (50") A conversation with Laura Tohe about Native American Education (and poetry).	OCT 28 No scheduled events, but a good day to catch up watching the films if you happened to miss a showing. All films will be available on 2 hr. reserve at the library after they have been shown in class.
OCT 31 4:30 PM, CN 227 (50") Film: "Chiefs" (87") "This documentary follows a team of Native American teens from Wyoming Indian High School in the town of Ethete on the Wind River Indian Reservation as they strive to recapture the state basketball championship while battling against poverty, alcoholism, drugs and racism. After graduation, the young men's next challenge is to convert the pride and success they	NOV 1 4:30 PM, CN 227 (50") Panel discussion with SUU Native American Student Association Students on their educational experiences before and at SUU.	NOV 2 4:30 pm, CN 227 Film: "Teachings of the Tree People: The Work of Bruce Miller" (58") "National Heritage Fellow Gerald Bruce Sùbiyay Miller, Skokomish Tribal Twana Indian leader, gathers and weaves a cedar bark mat and shares his life story and the teachings of the Tree People. A passionate student of the traditional culture, Bruce became the bearer of the language, oral history, art and	NOV 3 4:30 PM, CN 227 Film: We Still Live Here - Âs Nutayuneân (56") "This documentary is the story of the revitalization of the Wampanoag language, the first time a language with no native speakers has been revived in this country. The Wampanoag's ancestors ensured the survival of the Pilgrims in New England, and lived to regret it. Nevertheless, through resilience and courage they kept their identity alive and	NOV 4 4:30 PM, CN 227 No scheduled events, but a good day to catch up watching the films if you happened to miss a showing. All films will be available on 2 hr. reserve at the library after they have been shown in class.

NATIVE AMERICAN HISTORY WEEK, OCT./NOV. 2016

(unless noted otherwise, all events are in CN 227; events shaded in gray are required events;
italicized events are extra credit / make up events, associated with Native American Heritage Month)

experience on the basketball court into success in their adult lives--including higher education and employment.”		spirituality of the tuwaduq (Twana) and Southern Coast Salish peoples. This film documents his race against time and ailing health to pass the knowledge of his ancestors on to those who would listen.”	remained on their ancestral lands. Now a cultural revival is taking place.
NOV 7	NOV 8 4:30 pm, CN 227 Lecture on Native American “Founding Fathers”	NOV 9	NOV 10 7 pm, Living Room, Centrum Concert by Native American Musician, Mason Runs Through	NOV 11
NOV 14	NOV 15 7 pm, Sterling Church Auditorium, Centrum Discussion and showing of the documentary, We Still Live Here - Âs Nutayuneân and of the Wampanoag tribe’s perspective on the first Thanksgiving.	NOV 16	NOV 17 6 pm, Location TBD Native American Student Association Thanksgiving Dinner (free food!)	NOV 18
NOV 21	NOV 22	NOV 23 THANKSGIVING BREAK	NOV 24 THANKSGIVING BREAK	NOV 25-26 11th Annual Cedar Band of Paiutes Thanksgiving Powwow. PITU Gymnasium, 440 N. Paiute Dr., Cedar City. Events start at 6 pm on Friday, and at 12 noon on Saturday. This is a free event and open to the public.