FILM SOCIALISME
FILM SOCIALISME

Jean-Luc Godard
2010 / 101 min.

Introduction by Dr. Michelle Orihel, professor of History at SUU

Film Socialisme is set on a Mediterranean cruise ship, which docks in ports in Egypt, Greece, Spain, and Italy, among others; at each stop, passengers reflect on both the horrors of Europe's past—the Inquisition, the Holocaust—and its uncertain future. In its second half, the focus shifts to a rural gas station whose owners appear to be in the midst of a marital crisis. Yet here, too, larger sociopolitical issues—the Israel-Palestine conflict, for instance—are never far from the characters' thoughts.

LE HÉRISSON
THE HEDGEHOG

Mona Achache
2009 / 98 min.

Introduction by Dr. Julie Simon, professor of English at SUU

Nimbly adapted from Muriel Barbery's 2006 international bestseller, The Elegance of the Hedgehog, Mona Achache's first film follows two parallel storylines: one featuring a morbid little girl, the other a mysterious middle-aged widow janitor. Scrawny, bespectacled, and highly intelligent 11-year-old Paloma is disgusted by the futility of her bourgeois existence and plans to kill herself on her next birthday. Mme Michel prefers to keep secrets to herself, which will be revealed through deep bonds not only with the new resident Mr. Ozu but also Paloma.
