II. Course Description

Psychology Internship provides students with the opportunity to receive academic credit for supervised, professional level service and work experience. Students can receive up to 12 academic credits for supervised, professional level services. (Students can take from 1 through 12 credits per semester up to a cumulative total of 12 credits.) Students can also carry out multiple internships at various sites.

III. What is an Internship? An internship is a specialized applied learning experience with an intentional and structured learning agenda incorporated into pre-professional work activities in a way that mutually benefits the student-intern and the agency or placement site. Student interns have gleaned, from their academic experiences, foundational knowledge and skills that they can contribute to the work setting. Internship placement sites provide students with a list of expectations, duties, and performance goals, along with consistent supervision with feedback about their performance.

IV. Types of Internships

- Applied/Professional. This category includes placements in human service agencies, educational institutions, industrial/organizational settings, sports and health psychology programs, forensics psychology services, Human Resources and Personnel. It encompasses all remedial and enhancement applications of psychology.
- Research. The Psychology Department's independent research courses normally provide the opportunities and credits for student research projects. Occasionally, students who have completed research projects under the structure of those courses desire to conduct and receive credit for additional research. When this occurs, students can take internship as a means of receiving credit for their additional research work. Students may also wish to serve as research assistants for department faculty or join in a group research project. Internship provides the credit-granting instrument for this type of educational and service experience as well.

- Service. Recognition for service-learning projects normally comes through courses officially approved as service-learning and civic-engagement courses. Students wishing to engage in service-learning projects independent of or in addition to a service-learning courses can use internship as a means of receiving academic credit for their projects.
- Teaching. Internship can also serve as a structure for granting academic credit to students who serve/work as teaching assistants.

V. Academic Prerequisites

As per SUU Policy 6.3,B-1, students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher, and have completed a minimum of 30 undergraduate semester hours. In addition, successful (C or better) completion of Practicum, PSY 3800, normal prerequisites for clinical internships. On rare occasion, mature students with significant coursework or professional experience in Psychology can take Internship without having taken Psychology 3800. Prior to registering, they will need to demonstrate a knowledge of professional and ethical standards as decided by the internship coordinator. All students must meet with and obtain permission from the internship coordinator prior to enrolling in the internship course.

Some agencies require you to undergo fingerprinting and a Federal Criminal History background check. The fingerprinting fee is $10.00 and can be done at the University Police (T,W 2:00-4:00 p.m.) or through the Cedar City Police Department (T, Th 2:00-4:00) or by the Iron County Sheriff's Office (T,W, Th Mornings by appointment). The Federal Background Check has an added cost, and must be arranged by the agency.

VI. Assignments for Clinical/Applied Positions

These are the assignments for the clinical/applied positions. The research position assignments are below.

A. Internship Objectives Plan. Before counting internship hours, interns must write and receive approval from the Department Internship Coordinator, an internship objectives plan to include the following:

1. A general but brief description of the program or context in which the internship is going to occur. This includes the agency or program name, immediate supervisor's name and contact information, and the mission statement of the agency. You will also need to add your Name, T-Number, and for how many hours you wish to enroll.
2. Describe the responsibilities you will be carrying out at your placement, including what a typical shift would look like.
3. A brief description of the major learning goals for the internship. What do you hope to learn in this position, including skills and abilities?
 - a. Include source materials you plan to review for the internship
 - b. Include a description of the content knowledge and SUU courses you intend to draw from to carry out your internship
4. Based on #3 above, develop four specific, learning objectives written out in bullet-point format. Each specific learning objective should include, (a) one intended outcome, (b) the plan by which to accomplish that outcome, and (c) a method for evaluating accomplishment of the intended outcome.
5. If you are doing an internship at a site where you are employed, include a discussion of the job duties and responsibilities you will perform over and above your normal work duties

(See section XII below). Make sure you work with your supervisor in developing this plan.

A well conceptualized and well written IOP typically requires three to four, double spaced pages – which does not include the title page. Each number above, should represent a different section with an appropriate section heading.

B. Internship Agreement Form. The SUU Internship Agreement Form is a document that explains the roles and responsibilities each party involved in an internship have. The document is a formalized agreement between SUU, the student intern, and the agency in which the internship will take place. Before you begin any internship activities, the Internship Agreement Form must be completed, signed, and dated by the intern, a representative of the agency, and the department internship coordinator. Once signed, return the form to my office, either electronically or in hard copy. The form is attached to this syllabus as Appendix I.

C. Field Placement Hours. Consistent with the university's internship policy, the department's policy specifies a 45:1 ratio between clock hours and academic credit as the norm. The intern and internship coordinator will negotiate the actual ratio considering such factors as proportion of paid hours that are educational and difficulty level of the internship service. Your supervisor will need to sign off on your hours at the end of the semester on the Field Supervisor Evaluation.

D. Field Supervisor Evaluation. (Due December 1) Unless extenuating circumstances allow for an exception, a favorable, written evaluation from the field placement supervisor is a condition for receiving a passing grade for internship. Students should prompt the Department Internship Coordinator to provide their supervisor with the form early enough as to allow time for the supervisor to complete the form, such as mid-July. Student should then review the evaluation with her/his supervisor. The student will then turn the form in to me either electronically, or in person at my office (Room 308-K).

E. Reflective Papers. (Various Due Dates). Students will write the following three reflective papers during the Internship Experience.

a. Four Week Check In:

1. List at least five differences between you role as a college student and your role as an intern.
2. What was your transition from college student to Intern like? Were there unexpected challenges or issues that took you by surprise?
3. How effective is the supervision you are getting in your internship?
4. How are you progressing on your outcome objectives that you created in your Internship Objectives Plan?
5. From your observations and experiences, what are the main challenges faced by your intern agency achieving their goals as outlined in their Mission Statement?

b. Midterm Report:

1. What progress have I made on my Internship Learning Objectives?
2. What do I yet lack in order to complete my Internship Learning Objectives?

3. What changes have I made toward becoming more professional?
 4. List and describe three specific skills you have developed in your role as an internship.
 5. Give one instance in which I have handled conflict in a productive and professional manner.
 6. Give one instance in which I handled conflict in a less than ideal manner.
 7. Outline your educational/occupational plan from this point forward.
- Make the report about 4-8 pages in length.

c. Termination Assignment:

As you begin to wind down your internships, how you end your experience is almost important as how you conducted yourself during the semester. The process of ending a therapeutic relationship is called "Termination". Successful termination leaves your clients empowered and enabled. Successful termination leaves you satisfied and confident in your abilities. Now, termination does not mean every client with whom you work is "cured", sometimes, as with your internship, your time ends and the client must seek ongoing services from another provider. Helping the client transition to that other provider is an extremely important process. Simply ending the relationship with no transition amounts to "abandonment" and is strictly prohibited within the APA Ethical Guidelines. Here are some tips for successful termination:

Discuss termination with your clients early on in the counseling process.

Establish clear goals with your clients so that progress toward those goals can be recognized and completion of those goals is apparent.

Respect your client's desire to terminate if it is client-initiated, but be confident in expressing concerns if you feel termination may be premature.

Keep your relationship professional and do not let it stray into the realm of friendship.

Communicate to your clients that they can return if need be.

Help clients to review the success they have had in counseling.

Allow clients to discuss feelings of loss surrounding termination and process your own feelings surrounding the process, as well.

Most Interns are not proficient at termination/ending relationships. For this assignment, I would like you to write a one-page paper outlining your tendencies and past history with ending professional relationships. The paper should contain three sections:

Section #1- Reflect on the type of termination tactics you most frequently employ. Do you tend to end things abruptly to avoid awkward interactions or sad feelings? Do you tend to hang on to these relationships, often times making promises of ongoing contact that you realistically cannot keep? Do you intentionally do something to make the person with whom you are terminating angry with you, so the termination is easier? Outline some of the unintended negative consequences to your traditional style.

Section #2- Talk about why professional termination might be difficult for you. Are you afraid of harming clients? Are you doubtful of the impact you have had on your clients? Are you going to miss the interactions personally?

Section #3 -Include in your paper a plan for termination that is mutually beneficial for you and your clients.

Students completing Internship Hours over the Summer, and who will register for Credit during Fall Semester, should complete these assignments during the internship, and submit them for credit during the Fall.

F. Final Perspective Paper. (Due December 1) For this five to seven page assignment, divide your paper into four sections with four section headings and address the series of questions below.

4. Career Path

g. Does doing this research make you want to do more research, less of it, or at the very least a different kind?

h. What is the impact this research has had so far on your future career choices?

VIII. Other Course Requirements

1. Discussion Topics. Interns will be required to contribute ideas and thoughts to at least 4 on-line discussion topics, including a 4-week check in, a mid-internship assessment, a discussion on closure and transitions, and a wrap up discussion. There may be literature to read that guides the discussions. These discussion topics and written literature will be available on Canvas. Failure to respond to the discussions could lead to a non-passing grade.

2. Ethical Standards. Interns should familiarize themselves with and follow the most recent version of Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct published by the American Psychological Association available here: <http://www.apa.org/ethics/code/index.aspx>. They should also take the initiative in clarifying any ambiguities, ethical conflicts, or questions.
3. Meetings with the Internship Coordinator. The field placement supervisor provides the ongoing supervision of the intern's services. The internship coordinator (Dr. Barney) may check with the field placement supervisor during the internship, but does not provide direct supervision to the intern. Once the internship is structured, the internship coordinator and intern meet on an as-needed basis. At minimum, this is around the time of the mid-internship report and the final perspective paper due date.

IX. Grading and Academic Credit

By Southern Utah University policy, grading for the internship is on a pass-fail basis. Students who responsibly fulfill the requirements listed above receive "P" grades. (The "P" grade does not affect a student's grade point average.) Internship credits beyond the maximum number allowed by the department toward a major or minor in psychology fulfill general upper division credit requirements.

X. Waiver of Liability and Legal Clearances

Real-world learning, as compared to classroom instruction, increases exposure to potential harm. Thus, the University requires that interns sign a Waiver of Liability form.

Some agencies, especially those serving minors and vulnerable adults, require a criminal background investigation (CBI) clearance for staff, volunteers, and interns. Such background checks typically take from one to four months, depending on the number of states in which a student has lived. Students wishing to do a placement in an agency requiring a CBI should submit their applications well in advance of the beginning date of the internship.

XI. Internship Sites

With more than 80 established field placement sites, placement approval is automatic for most students. For sites not in the established list, Dr. Barney needs to approve the field placement site and supervisor. To view the established sites go to <http://www.suu.edu> and then click successively on Academics, College of Humanities & Social Sciences, Department of Psychology, Practicum/Internships.

XII. Rules Regarding Using Employment Site for Internship

Student education and professional preparation constitute the main goals of an internship. In contrast, a fair exchange principle governs the employment relationship; that is, the employee owes an employer service in return for money. Thus, paid time used for internship credit involves an inherent role conflict. Nevertheless, students can use employment settings for internships provided the internship component is clearly identified within the Internship Objectives Plan and is somehow different than normal work duties (i.e., plan and conduct educational classes, work with therapists, attend case consultation meetings, etc.). Custodial time, e.g. night shifts while clients are asleep, does not count.

XIII. Agency Requirements

The requirements summarized in this syllabus represent academic expectations. Host agencies may impose their own requirements. Before agreeing to a placement, students should inquire regarding agency expectations.

XIV. Academic Integrity

Students who struggle with issues such as cheating, dishonesty, or general lack of integrity should not be in a field placement. Role modeling may stand as the number one curative factor for clients served by Internship students. Falsifying records, claiming credit for work not performed, or any other acts of dishonesty will be addressed. Such acts may result in expulsion from the course with a grade of "F" and referral to the department chair, college dean, or university provost for further action. As with all other courses, students are expected to have read and understood the current issue of the student handbook (published by Student Services) regarding student responsibilities, rights, and on-campus code of conduct.

XV. Students with Disabilities

Students with medical, psychological, learning, or other disabilities desiring academic adjustments, accommodations, or auxiliary aids need to contact the Southern Utah University Coordinator of Services for Student with Disabilities (SSD) in Room 206F of the Sharwan Smith Center or phone (435) 865-8022. SSD determines eligibility for and authorizes the provision of services.

XVI. Changes in the Syllabus

Information contained in this syllabus, other than the grading, late assignments, makeup work, and attendance policies, may be subject to change with advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Rather, SUU, and its Intern(s) shall at all times be considered independent contractor(s). Each Intern is placed with the Employer to receive educational experience as part of the academic curriculum. Unless mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the SUU Departmental internship coordinator, duties performed by an Intern are not performed as an employee of Employer or SUU.

2.6.1 While the duties are performed under direct supervision of Employer's personnel, it is generally understood that the Intern is in a compensated role unless they meet the Unpaid Internship requirements defined by the Department of Labor Fair Labor Standards Act (<http://www.dol.gov/whd/regs/compliance/whdfs71.pdf>) and, therefore, the Employer shall provide worker's compensation coverage.

2.6.2 Under such conditions that the employer does meet the Unpaid Internship requirements defined by the Department of Labor Fair Labor Standards Act, neither the Employer nor SUU is required to provide worker's compensation coverage for the Intern participating in the educational experience.

2.6.3 If the Intern is not serving as an employee of the Employer or SUU, intellectual property produced by the Intern belongs to the Intern, not the Employer or SUU. - 5.11 Acknowledge and agree that as an Intern, he/she will be placed with the Employer to receive educational experience as part of his/her academic curriculum. Unless mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the SUU Departmental internship coordinator, duties performed as an Intern are not performed as an employee of the Employer but rather in fulfillment of the academic requirements of the Intern's educational experience and are to be performed under direct supervision by Employer personnel. Unless the Intern is approved to perform the internship as a compensated employee of the Employer, neither the Employer nor SUU is required to provide worker's compensation coverage for the Intern.
