

MASTER OF ACCOUNTANCY

The Master of Accountancy program provides greater breadth and depth to further develop the knowledge and skills needed to enter professional accountancy. With nearly a 100 percent placement rate, MAcc graduates have opportunities to work for accounting firms or government agencies across the U.S. and around the world. Typical jobs include positions in taxation, auditing, and controllership.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. MAcc application + $60 (USD) fee
2. Bachelor's degree from accredited university, demonstrated by official transcript of all coursework after high school, with a 3.0 GPA or higher
3. Course syllabi of required foundation courses
4. Admission is calculated from combined GPA and GMAT/GRE score (see suu.edu/business/macc). Pre-MAcc students take foundation courses at SUU instead of submitting GMAT/GRE scores.
5. Students from AACSB accredited schools may be eligible for a GMAT/GRE waiver based on GPA or work experience
6. Three (3) letters of recommendation in English
7. International Admission Requirements*
