Bachelor of Arts in Art History

A liberal-arts degree focusing on the history of art, design and visual culture within the context of a broader program of general studies.

The BA in Art History will provide students with a foundation for understanding, processing and responding critically to art and design within a historical context, and will equip them to think, speak, and write clearly and effectively about all manifestations of visual and material culture as they reflect and relate to society.

Careers for graduates with a BA in Art History include positions in all areas of the gallery and museum professions; librarianships in fine arts and special collections; private and public institutional staff positions in digital collections management; image-related database librarianships; image database design positions; art cataloguing and provenance-research positions; gallery- and museum-based archiving and research positions; art criticism and art journalism for both traditional and web-based news outlets; creative art and design work; and (most often) graduate studies in art, art history, or museum studies leading to advanced careers in higher education, research and visual art-related curatorial work.

Language Requirement: four semesters of a single foreign language are required. Any language for which a basic 1010/1020/2010/2020 sequence of formal instruction is available at or through SUU is acceptable.

The degree requires approximately four years of study as outlined in this worksheet. Students are encouraged to consult the online catalog for individual course descriptions and requirements.
