Third Annual Rock and Roll Concert Brings Europop to Stage

Written by Tracy Solimeno

Southern Utah University, Cedar City, Utah: The choirs from Southern Utah University's Department of Music perform their 3rd Annual Rock and Roll Concert, EuroPOP! The SUU Choirs and Music Tech 3rd Annual Rock and Roll Show, Tuesday, February 20, 2018, 7:30 p.m. at Heritage Center Theater. Europop's upbeat, dance-friendly style will have audience members dancing in their seats. Admission is $10 for adults, $8 for Alumni with card, and $5 for youth. SUU faculty, staff, and students can get in free with a valid ID card.

EuroPOP! The SUU Choirs and Music Tech 3rd Annual Rock and Roll Show is a follow up to last year's show that featured the music of The Beatles, the leaders of the musical British Invasion. Featuring music from A-Ha, Thompson Twins, and ABBA, you won't want to miss these upbeat tempos, light lyrics, and dynamic rhythms.

"This is not your normal choir concert where you sit back and relax," said Kyle Stringham, a senior, at SUU, "We want to see people standing up and dancing, singing along, enjoying themselves like they were at an actual Rock concert."

The Phat Old Professors from Ephraim will join vocal soloists and choir members in performing musical numbers such as: "What is Love", "Macarena", and "The Final Countdown." These songs have not only shaped music, they have had a huge impact on the music video and DanceCrazy world. Students participating in the Master of Music in Music Technology program have also worked on making this concert unforgettable.

Dr. Steve Meredith, Director of the Master of Music Technology program and former Director of Choral Activities, who will be returning to conduct the show said, "This concert focuses on Europop, a loosely defined style of music that flourished primarily between the 60s and 90s. It is happy, interesting music that rode the popularity of MTV and music videos."

"I'm telling all of my friends to come to our Europop Concert. It's going to be a BLAST," Lydia Lee, a communication major said. "This show is so much fun to do! The choir is groovin' and the audience can't help but bop along! Everyone feels like a dancing queen!"
