

SOUTHERN UTAH MUSEUM OF ART
Phased Plan for Reopening during COVID-19

Phase II: July 11 - September 12

Open the new exhibition, Jimmie F. Jones: Find the Distance, with the following restrictions:

- Masks are required of visitors due to an executive order by Gov. Herbert that states masks are required for all state buildings, including higher education
 - This requirement will remain in effect as long as it is extended by the State of Utah
- Resume normal business hours: Monday - Saturday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.
- Limited number of visitors at one time, depending on space:
 - No more than 60 people in the main gallery space, including Visitor Services staff
 - No more than 1 person at a time in Leviathan: Elegy for Ice, closing August 29, unless a visiting household
 - No more than 4 people in Rocki Alice Gallery, unless a visiting household
- North interior doors will be entrance and south interior doors will be exit only
- All SUMA staff are required to:
 - Take their temperature upon arrival for shift
 - Wear a mask at all times due to the executive order by Gov. Herbert
- Visitors are not permitted to handle items in the SUMA Shop
 - Visitor Services employees will wear gloves when handling SUMA Shop merchandise and sales
 - No cash accepted at this time
- In addition to hand washing signage in all public restrooms, hand sanitizer stations placed at the front interior doors and throughout the gallery (while supplies last)
- Select public programs and events will resume:
 - Teen Art Camp (limited to 8 participants and 1 staff member)
 - Art Adventures (will move to a meet up location, rather than transportation provided)
- Other public programs and events cancelled or changed:
 - Museum will remain open on July 31 and August 28, if Final Friday Art Walk series is not cancelled, but with limited attendance
 - No food served at this time
 - Family Day and Create Playdate will remain as virtual experiences through Facebook Watch Party
- Use of gallery attendants during Phase II will be optional for museum volunteers

September 13 - 24: Museum Closed for Rotations, including additional painting and cleaning
