

JORDANELLE MUGRIDGE

SUUSA SENATOR
HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES

My name is Jordanelle Mugridge I am a Psychology major with minors in French and Theater. I am running to be your Senator for the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

I spent this last year as an Involvement Captain volunteering at events and talking to students. I love getting to know all of you and trying to help you have the best time you can on campus and at college. I believe connection is one of the best ways to have success and happiness and I want to be a point of connection for you.

My goals as your Senator are as follows:

- To learn about what students want from the HSS College and me as the Senator and to do my best to make those happen.
 - To listen and incorporate student ideas.
 - I want you to be heard and I am here to listen.
- To organize an event to learn about Liberal Arts majors for those who are undecided.
 - Organize a monthly meeting (or one-time event) presenting different majors.
 - Students can come and gauge interest.
 - Presentations from teachers and students.
- To organize a Liberal Arts Career Fair.
 - An opportunity to learn about jobs you can do with your degree.
 - Professors and other professional can come and present on their job and answer your questions.

I want to be an advocate for you to help you have an enjoyable experience at SUU. With these goals and I want to be able to connect with those from the HSS college and be a voice for you and your needs, ideas, and concerns.
