What the DRC Provides

Travel Confidently

We're Here for You!

Studying abroad is a life-changing experience. The DRC is here to ensure that all students with disabilities can fully participate in and benefit from short-term study abroad programs.

- Support planning for accessible travel
- Communication with your program leaders abroad
- Coordination of accommodations (testing, note-taking, mobility support, etc.)
- Medical/emergency support preparation
- Help with documentation review
- Advocacy and support if issues arise abroad

How to Get Started

1. Contact the DRC Early

Let us know your study abroad plans.

2. Meet with a DRC Specialist

We'll talk through your needs.

3. Prepare with the Office of Study Abroad

We work together to ensure accessibility

4. Travel with Confidence!
