 - A. Promoting Near Peer App Bill - Sen. Burnside-Evans- (Referencing SUUSA S.B. 003 Bill: Promoting Near Peer App)
 - B. Division - Abstaining: Sen. Cox, Rep. Reyescordova (Sen. Partida not in attendance)
 - C. Bill Passes
- V. New Business
 - A. Baseball Club Funding Request - VP of Finance Sutton - The Baseball Club is requesting $2,000 from the senate budget of $20,000. The team consists of 20 members and they travel to games and play against universities in California and Arizona. They pay their own way for their away games and for the umpires.
 1. Rep. Moore - They're matching the funding? Sutton- They have committed to pay for: transportation, hotel costs, and travel necessities. This request is for offsetting the initial league fee.
 2. Sen. Matheson - Is this a one-time fee or are they requesting $2,000 each year? Sutton- They submit a new request each year. It's not a repetitive payment.
 3. Motion to Vote
 4. Division - All in favor
 - B. English 1010 & 2010 APA Specific Courses - Sen. Walton - Proposing to add a few 1010 and 2010 classes that are taught in APA format to help prepare students for future classes that will require APA format.
 1. Rep. Moore - Would it be difficult to have the professors to teach in APA format when they're more proficient in MLA? Sen. Walton - Most teachers are already familiar with APA, but they could consult outside resources if needed.
 2. Rep. Hawk - Would it be possible to get Chicago-style included in this? Sen. Walton - It's a great idea and if there is a need for it, then yes.
 3. Rep. Paz - 1010E is specified for international students who aren't proficient in English, would this be included in the proposal? Sen. Walton - Yes, that's a great idea.
 4. Rep. Oschner - With the addition of the new Psychology doctoral program, this is a great idea
 5. Rep. Hamilton - Would this be in place of general english classes or all english classes? Sen. Walton - It would be for the required english classes that freshmen have to take.
 6. Sen. LeFevre - Would it be an APA class or would it be the usual content but taught in APA? Sen. Walton - It would be the usual content, but assignments would be in APA format.
 7. VPofAcademics - Is the Dean of Humanities on board for this idea? Sen. Walton - She is the one who brought up this idea, so yes she is on board.
 8. Motion to Refer to Committee - All in Favor
- VI. Close
