Bill: Humanities and Social Sciences Shark Tank

SPONSOR: Kyler Harrison, Humanities and Social Sciences Senator

CO-SPONSOR: Mitchell Zufelt, Vice President of Academics

AUTHOR: Kyler Harrison, Humanities and Social Sciences Senator

WHEREAS: The Southern Utah University Student Association looks for ways to improve many different aspects of campus life, the college of Humanities and Social Sciences would like to host an event for HSS students to provide an opportunity for community building and idea creation.

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED: The Humanities and Social Sciences Senator, student advisory board, and Dean will plan a Shark Tank night in which all HSS students are invited to attend and pitch ideas on ways they want to improve their major, or college in general.

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED: An amount of $5,000 is allocated for the investment of a students' idea for improvement. This money could be used for various projects, and split among three students depending on the cost of each idea.

THEREFORE LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED: That students will be required to fill out a form detailing their idea prior to the entering of the event. There will be specific stipulations set by Dean Boreen, and the student advisory board that students will need to follow.

THEREFORE LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED: The winning project(s) will be selected on the second week of March, with work on these projects to begin immediately. If the project were to take place in the following school year, Dean Boreen would have the money in her Dean's fund to work on these projects with the current HSS Senator.
